How to Apply for Financial Aid

Complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov. To expedite this process, a student and the parent of a dependent student will need to have a federal FSA ID and password. Individuals apply for the FSA ID at fsaid.ed.gov/npas/index.htm. The FSA ID serves as the individual's electronic signature on the FAFSA, as well as other aid documents, and provides access to confidential information on the Internet. For on-time consideration, the FAFSA should be filed as soon as possible after October 1st of each filing season. Be sure to list Buffalo State College's federal school code (002842) in the college section.

A grant is also available for New York State residents. To apply, students should complete the Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) application at www.tap.hesc.ny.gov/totw/. Be sure that the SUC Buffalo (0905) state school code is listed in the college section.

When Will I Hear About My Awards?

Once Buffalo State receives your FAFSA information from the federal processor, it will be reviewed. At that time it may become necessary to request additional documentation before we are able to determine your eligibility for aid. In most cases, two to four weeks after all paperwork is received and reviewed; students will receive an award letter detailing their estimated financial aid eligibility. If the aid package includes a loan, work-study, or certain scholarships, you must log in to Banner at banner.buffalostate.edu to accept or decline these funds.

All students who wish to borrow a loan must:

- complete a Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) and;
- complete an Entrance Interview

Complete both tasks at: www.studentloans.gov. Failure to do so will prevent your loans from disbursing.

New York Higher Education Service Corporation (HESC) will notify students via email when the TAP Award Certificate is available for viewing on their website. This occurs after the state budget is passed, sometime in spring/summer.

Scholarships

Students can locate scholarship information at financialaid.buffalostate.edu/scholarships. The site promotes Buffalo State scholarships along with resources for searching other scholarships from external sources. The vast majority of Buffalo State Scholarships are posted in CAPS, which can be accessed at the aforementioned address. CAPS provides a centralized location for all scholarships streamlines the process for students. If you have questions, email scholarship@buffalostate.edu.

Federal Work-Study Program (FWS)

The Federal Work-Study Program provides jobs to undergraduate and graduate students on and off campus. Students must be awarded FWS before being considered for a job. More students are awarded work-study than there are available positions so motivated students must be diligent in seeking a position at the start of the semester. The work-study job postings are made available in the Online Resource for Career Advancement (ORCA) one week prior to the start of the fall/spring semesters. ORCA Access: buffalostate-csm.symphlicity.com/students/

Student Employment Office

The Student Employment Office, located in the Career Development Center, provides a list of part-time jobs at buffalostate-csm.symphlicity.com/students. For further information, contact: Student Employment Office, Cleveland Hall 306, (716) 878-5811.

Textbook Deferments

If students have aid in excess of their charges, they can request a textbook deferment before the fall, spring, and summer semesters through the first week of class. The deferment allows students to purchase books and supplies in the campus bookstore before their aid is disbursed. Student campus identification is required at the time of purchase or pickup at the bookstore. Book deferments can be requested online in Banner or in-person at the Financial Aid or Student Accounts Office. More information: financialaid.buffalostate.edu/maximize-textbook-deferment.
