2024-2025 Special Circumstances Form

* Requests must be made while the student is still enrolled in the academic year with sufficient processing time to have the review completed by the end of the enrollment period or end of the academic year, whichever happens first ****

Sometimes the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not adequately reflect a family's financial situation due to extenuating circumstances. Buffalo State is given authority by Congress to make adjustments to information submitted on the FAFSA form on a case-by-case basis if we believe such adjustments are warranted. Listed below are situations in which we may consider making adjustments. Please complete the sections that apply, providing all requested documentation and any additional documentation that you believe would support your request. A separate form is required for loss of income and is available on our website.

- 1. Childcare expenses – for student's dependents. In most cases, only a student's loan or work-study eligibility will be affected. Attach signed copies of childcare invoices for each dependent.

How many children need full-time childcare? _____ Names/age: _____

How many children need after school childcare? _____ Names/ages: _____

Estimated total weekly cost $ _____

- 2. Special Equipment - i.e.) computer, required supplies for course work, special equipment for students with disabilities, other – Provide proof that the equipment is required and an estimated cost.
- 3. Housing costs above the cost of attendance allowance – If off campus, provide a copy of your lease.
- 4. Costs associated with certifications and licenses – provide proof of actual cost.
- 5. Other Family Members in college – to have other family members tuition expenses considered in the student's aid eligibility. Submit a copy of the final tuition bill from the other family member's institution. It must include any aid and scholarships that the family member is receiving as well as charges. Other family members must be matriculated (degree-granting program) and enrolled at least half-time to qualify.
- 6. Private elementary or secondary school tuition – day care, preschool, and private college costs are not considered expenses under this category. Attach copies of billing statements for the 2024-2025 school year that show the net cost (minus scholarships) that you are responsible to pay.

- 7. Cessation of benefits – in cases where benefits such as child support cease due to a student turning a certain age. We were receiving $ _____ on a monthly basis. As of _____ those benefits will no longer be received.

- 8. Unusually high medical expenses – Only families with medical coverage that have paid out a large percentage of the family income towards medical expenses may be able to receive an offset against income. Only the charges that are actually paid by the family can be counted. Costs covered by insurance or paid by someone else cannot be counted.

In calendar year 2023 or 2024 (check one) we will have the following out of pocket medical charges:

Doctor's bills	$ _____	Insurance premiums	$ _____
Dental/Orthodontia bills	$ _____	Eye Care	$ _____
Prescriptions	$ _____	Hospital Care/Lab Work	$ _____

* For conditions 9 and 10 you must also complete the attached Verification Worksheet and supply copies of 2022 federal income tax returns and/or W-2 forms as detailed on the worksheet. If you already submitted the Verification Worksheet or tax forms this year, you do not need to submit duplicate copies.

9. Lump sum distribution – One Time Only consideration while attending Buffalo State

This could be a capital gain, a one-time distribution from a retirement plan, or some other situation in which the money was not received in the previous year and will not be received in the next year.

We received $ _____ in the form of a one-time disbursement. Please document where this money is now (e.g. savings account, investments). _____

10. Independent student or parents of dependent students separated/divorced.

- a. Date of current marital status (mm/dd/yyyy): _____
- b. Must provide a legal document, rental or lease agreement, or canceled rent checks for 3 months or for the parent that moved to a different location: 3 months utility bills (i.e. gas, electric, cable).

11. Other – Please explain in the space below or provide a separate sheet of paper.

Note: Adjustments will not be made for geographic differences in cost of living or based on an accounting of personal income against monthly bills. No adjustments are made for things like the purchase of a new or used vehicle.

Required: Please describe the special circumstances for which you are requesting an adjustment to your federal aid application. Provide full details. Attach a separate sheet if necessary.
